

Feeling COVID curious? Here's a librarian-

curated reading list

March 10, 2020 Alex Williamson

Photo by Jessica Ruscello via Unsplash

Share this:

With the growing sense of panic in the city and a wealth of misinformation about the coronavirus outbreak, Brooklyn Public Library has put together a list of books on epidemics of the past to help New Yorkers put coronavirus in context.

Already a subscriber? Log in here

This story is free

Sign up for a free account to continue reading and get access to the Brooklyn Today newsletter.

Email

Password

Submit

Or, subscribe for unlimited access